

Joel Alcantara DC (USA). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic West, 1995. Nominated by the International Chiropractic Pediatric Association (ICPA). He practises in San Jose, California, and serves as Research Director for the ICPA, which fosters research and postgraduate education in the field of paediatrics.

Gerard Clum DC (USA). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1973. Nominated by the WFC Executive, and serves as one of the co-chairs of the Task Force. President of Life Chiropractic College

West, Hayward, California, former Vice-President of the International Chiropractors Association and currently Second Vice-President of the WFC.

Joseph E Brimhall DC (USA). College: Logan College of Chiropractic, 1981. Nominated by the Councils on Chiropractic Education International (CCEI). A leader in chiropractic education who was recently appointed President of Western States Chiropractic College in Portland, Oregon.

Peter Dixon DC (UK). College: Anglo-European Chiropractic College, 1984. Nominated by the WFC Executive, and serves as one of the co-chairs of the Task Force. Practises in Bradford-on-Avon, England, Past President of the British Chiropractic Association and currently President of the European Chiropractors' Union.

Paul F Carey DC (Canada). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, 1967. Nominated by the WFC Executive, and serves as one of the co-chairs of the Task Force. Has practised in Stratford, Ontario, for over 35 years, is a past president of the Canadian Chiropractic Association, and currently serves as WFC President.

Philippe Druart DC (Belgium). College: Anglo-European Chiropractic College, 1973. Nominated by WFC's European Region. A past president of the Belgian Chiropractors' Union who practises in Liège, Belgium.

Carl Cleveland III DC (USA). College: Cleveland Chiropractic College, 1975. Nominated by the Association of Chiropractic Colleges. A fourth generation chiropractor, who is President of Cleveland Chiropractic College, with campuses in Kansas City and Los Angeles.

Phillip S Ebrall BAppSc(Chiro) (Australia). College: Phillip Institute of Technology (now RMIT University), 1990. Nominated by the Co-chairs of the Task Force, representing the education and research community. Programme Leader (Acting) for Chiropractic, RMIT University, Melbourne, and experienced in chiropractic education in Australia and Asia. Has a former career as a radio journalist.

Homer E Firestone DC (Bolivia). College: Southern California University Health Sciences, 1997. Nominated by the WFC Latin American Region. A second generation chiropractor who practises in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

Espen F Johannessen DC (Norway). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1982. Nominated by the Norwegian Chiropractic Association (NCA). A past president of the NCA who practises in Lillestrom and has been a leader in negotiations with the government during the integration of chiropractic into the Norwegian health system in the past decade.

Peter Furno DC (USA). College: Lincoln College of Chiropractic, 1969. Nominated by Self. Practises in Indianapolis where, since the mid 1990s, he has been a partner in a multidisciplinary spinal pain unit.

Susan King DC MBA (UK). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, 1972. Nominated by the Co-chairs of the Task Force, representing the education and research community.

Formerly practised in her native New Zealand, currently Professor and Head of the Welsh Institute of Chiropractic, Glamorgan University in Wales.

Cheryl Hawk DC PhD (USA). College: National College of Chiropractic (now National University of Health Sciences), 1976. Nominated by the Co-chairs of the Task Force, representing the education and research community. Currently Senior Researcher, Parker Research Institute, an affiliate of Parker College of Chiropractic, Dallas, Texas. Widely published in areas relevant to the identity and role of the profession.

David Koch DC (USA). College: Sherman College of Straight Chiropractic, 1980. Nominated by Palmer University Chiropractic System. A former president of Sherman College of Straight Chiropractic, currently Vice-President for Professional and International Affairs for Palmer. Served as Program Director for the WFC/ACC Conference on Philosophy in Chiropractic Education, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, November 2000.

Donald Henderson DC FCCS(C) FCCR(C) DACBR (Canada). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, 1975. Nominated by Self. A past president of the Canadian Chiropractic

Association (CCA) who practises in Toronto and has extensive experience as an expert witness. Led the CCA's Glen Erin Clinical Guidelines process in the early 1990s.

Henrik L Laugesen DC (Denmark). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1988. Nominated by the Danish Chiropractors' Association (DCA). Practises in Copenhagen, currently President of the DCA, and recently led a consultation on identity for the profession in Denmark.

Barry J Lewis DC (UK). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1977. Nominated by the WFC European Region. Practised for 15 years in New Zealand and is currently Lead Clinic Tutor at the Anglo-European College of Chiropractic in Bournemouth, England, and President of the British Chiropractic Association.

Silvano A Mior DC FCCS (Canada). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College (CMCC), 1980. Nominated by Co-chairs of the Task Force, representing the education and research community. Dean of Graduate Studies at CMCC, practises part-time in Markham, Ontario, and currently serves on secondment as Senior Clinical Advisor to the Ontario Ministry of Health and Long Term Care.

George McClelland DC (USA). College: National College of Chiropractic (now National University of Health Sciences). Nominated by the WFC North American Region-American Chiropractic

Association (ACA). Practises in Christiansburg, Virginia and currently serves as Chairman of the Board, ACA, and a director of the Foundation for Chiropractic Education and Research (FCER).

Jean Moss DC MBA (Canada). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College (CMCC), 1970. Nominated by the Association of Chiropractic Colleges (ACC). A leader in chiropractic education who currently serves as President of CMCC and of the ACC.

William P McDonald DC (USA). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1984. Nominated by Self. Practises in Charleston, West Virginia, and was a principal investigator and author of the new survey of North American chiropractors titled How Chiropractors Think and Practice (2003).

Gregory Oke BAppSc(Chiro) (New Zealand). College: Phillip Institute of Technology (now RMIT University), 1987. Nominated by the New Zealand Chiropractors Association

(NZCA). Practises in Fielding and currently serves as President of the NZCA.

Athol A McLean DC FCCS (Namibia). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1976. Nominated by the WFC African Region. Has practised for over 35 years in South Africa and Namibia, where he currently serves as President of the Namibian Chiropractic Association.

Efstathios Papadopoulos DC (Cyprus). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1981. Nominated by the WFC Eastern Mediterranean Region. Practises in the capital city of Nicosia and is President of the Cyprus Chiropractic Association and Secretary-Treasurer of the WFC.

E Daniel Quatro DC (USA). College: New York College of Chiropractic, 1987. Nominated by the New York State Chiropractic Association (NYSCA). Practises in Webster, New York, and is

President of the NYSCA which has been engaged in a structured assessment of the role of chiropractic services during the past five years.

Louis Sportelli DC (USA). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1962. Nominated by the Co-chairs, representing the vendor community. A past Chairman of the Board, American Chiropractic

Association and WFC President, he has practised for over 35 years in Palmerton, Pennsylvania and is currently President of the NCMIC Group.

Dennis Richards DC (Australia). College: Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1985. Nominated by the WFC's Pacific Region. Practises in South Penrith, New South Wales and currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Chiropractors' Association of Australia and represents the Pacific Region on the WFC Council.

Gregory B Stewart DC (Canada). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, 1986. Nominated by the WFC North American Region- Canadian Chiropractic Association

(CCA). Practises in Winnipeg, Manitoba and is the Immediate Past President of the CCA which has recently gone through an extensive identity/branding process relative to the role of chiropractic.

Jean Robert DC (Switzerland). College: Los Angeles College of Chiropractic (now Southern California University of Health Sciences), 1977.

Nominated by Co-chairs of the Task Force, representing the education and research community. Originally from Paris, France, and formerly Chair of the European Chiropractors' Union (ECU) Research Council, he practises in Geneva and is Director of the Swiss Institute of Chiropractic.

Anna Maria Svabo Jorgensen DC (Singapore). College: Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, 1979. Nominated by the WFC Asian Region.

Originally from Denmark, she has practised for the past several years in Singapore, where she was recommended by the Chiropractic Association (Singapore).

Stephen J Simonetti DC (USA) College: Life Chiropractic College, 1983. Nominated by the Congress of Chiropractic State Associations (COCSA). Practises in Whitestone, New York, and currently serves as Vice-President of COCSA.

Cindy Vaughn DC (USA). College: Los Angeles College of Chiropractic (now Southern California University of Health Sciences), 1984. Nominated by Self.

Practises in Austin, Texas, is past president of the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners, currently serves on the Board of the Federation of Chiropractic Licensing Boards (FCLB) and as a member of the Veterans Affairs Chiropractic Advisory Committee.

Adrian Wenban
BAppSc(Chiro) MMedS
(Spain). College: Phillip
Institute of Technology
(now RMIT University), 1989. Nominated by Self.
Originally practised in his native Australia, currently practises in Barcelona, Spain, and is published in fields relevant to identity and the philosophy of chiropractic.

Stephanie Youngblood DC
FICA (USA). College: Life
University, 1984.
Nominated by the WFC
North American Region-International
Chiropractors Association (ICA). Practises in Las Vegas, Nevada, and serves on the ICA Board since 1990, and as Vice President of the Chiropractic Physicians' Board of Nevada.

LAY REPRESENTATIVES

Bram B Briggance PhD (USA). Nominated by Co-
chairs of the Task Force.
Currently, Associate Director, California Workforce Initiative at the Center for the Health Professions, University of California at San Francisco (UCSF), where his research and publications have dealt with profession-specific workforce profiles, including a profile of the chiropractic profession.

Matthew Givrad PhD (USA and Iran). Nominated by
Co-chairs of the Task Force. With a doctorate in education, he formerly held senior administrative positions with the Council on Chiropractic Education

USA and Los Angeles College of Chiropractic
(now Southern California University of Health Sciences), and is currently Senior Vice-President for Institutional Outreach at Cleveland Chiropractic College, Los Angeles.

Pranlal Manga PhD (Canada). Nominated by
Co-chairs of the Task Force. One of Canada's leading health economists who has frequently acted as consultant for other national governments and the World Health Organisation (WHO). He currently serves as Professor, School of Management, University of Ottawa, and has published extensive research in the health sector, including the case for substitution of medical services by doctors of chiropractic, midwives, nurses and others.

Ann-Liss Taarup (Denmark). Nominated by Cochairs of the Task Force. For the past generation has been the leading figure in the Danish Pro-chiropractic Patients Association, has assisted other European countries to establish patient support organisations, and currently serves as President, European Federation of Pro-chiropractic Associations (EFPCA).

Irene G Turner PhD (UK). Nominated by Co-chairs of the Task Force. Senior Lecturer, Department of Engineering and Applied Science, and Head, Biomaterials Research, Centre for Orthopaedic

Biomechanics, at the University of Bath. A chiropractic patient engaged in education and research in allied health fields, including orthopaedics.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE

Victoria Wheeldon (UK). College: Anglo-European College of Chiropractic. Nominated by the World Congress of Chiropractic Students. A student leader from the AECC in Bournemouth, England.